Amnesty International report on violation of Human Rights in India

1599. SHRI SUSHILKUMAR SAMBHAJIRAO SHINDE:
SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA:
SHRI RAJUBHAI A. PARMAR:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the recently released Annual Report of Amnesty International, charging Government and Indian security forces of large scale violation of Human Rights, in detention of thousands of persons without trial for long spells and perpetrating atrocities on under-trials and others in custody;

(b) if so, what are the precise facts and figures, including comparative figures for preceding years in respect of such violations of Human Rights, as brought out in this report; and

(c) what is Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI SALMAN KHURSHID): (a) to (c) In its Annual Report, Amnesty International has once again made sweeping and generalised allegations of the Human Rights situation in India. It has alleged that thousands of political prisoners were held without charge or trial, that torture and ill-treatment of detainees was routine, resulting in hundreds of deaths in police and military custody. It also alleges that scores of political detainees disappeared and that hundreds of people were reported to have been extra judiciously executed by the security forces. No figures of cases of alleged Human Rights violation of different kinds are given in such reports. It has been our complaint against the Amnesty International that their generalised allegations are based on inadequate facts and questionable sources.
